

Senior Sustainability Expert

Berlin OR Munich

Sharkbite Innovation is an ecosystem and company builder for business that positively contributes to at least one of the 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). We combine sustainable goals with profitability in order to make their pursuit economically attractive because we are convinced that the achievement of the SDGs until 2030 cannot be ensured by countries and NGOs alone. Privately held companies need to drive the agenda as well. More about us on www.sharkbite.international.

We are searching for comprehensive support to our unique team.

Your core tasks:

You are partially responsible for the successful delivery of our projects combining sustainability with profitability. This means for example:

- Support in the generation of impulses and ideas during the creative ideation phase at the beginning
- Support in the building and development of new business
- Application and transfer of our methodology package (including, but not limited to Design Thinking, Lean Startup, Agile Management)
- Operative lead of other team members
- Frequent representation of Sharkbite, i.e. as speaker or through Meetups
- Proactive leverage of the Shark network and your personal network for identification of new project
- Leverage of your profound Sustainability Expertise and creation of publications or event formats
- Support in recruiting new employees

Your experience:

- You direct >5 years of experience in the sustainability sector at a relevant organization and have fulfilled multiple roles
- You have had the role as responsible lead for initiatives and/or projects and delivered them successfully
- You direct a master's degree or equivalent, ideally with a focus on sustainability or innovation
- Additional plus: You direct experience as a (Co-) Founder

Your properties:

- You know the 17 SDGs and support their intended achievement until 2030
- You are equally convinced by the Sharkbite vision and approach
- You have convincing entrepreneurial spirit
- You are intrinsically motivated and a „self-starter“
- You direct a reliable network from your past activities
- You are fluent in English and German (Verbal as well as written)

Our offer:

- Undisputable purpose in what you do and achieve through the unique combination of Sustainability, Innovation and Startup – lets change for the better, together!
- High freedom of scope and space for development through the absence of worn-out paths and established processes
- Responsible tasks and duties
- A young and to-the-bones motivated team with flat hierarchies

Please send you application including your compensation expectation and your earliest start date to join@sharkbite.international.
